Matrix Integrator

There Are Two Ways to Run Your Security Integration Company.

The Old Way and The New Way...

FEATURES & HIGHLIGHTS

- An easy to deploy cloud-based alarm and interactive video integrated solution.
- New services provide additional recurring monthly revenue (RMR) every month.
- Offer video services powered by AI, machine learning, and analytics.
- Provide new and current customers with managed automated video services.
- Bridge to a central monitoring station of your choice at any time.

Matrix Integrator empowers security integration companies to grow their recurring monthly revenue (RMR) by offering new security services and solutions using our cloud-based alarm and interactive video monitoring platform. You are now in control and can offer your clients managed alarm video services – with minimal upfront costs!

Flexible, scalable, and easy to implement, Matrix Integrator is the new way of selling CCTV and building recurring revenue every month! Plus, using our revolutionary hybrid technology, you can monitor accounts during the day, evenings, weekends, or bridge to a professional central monitoring station of your choice at any time.
